2. This certificate is valid subject to all the information provided above being correct. If the information is not correct or complete, the insurance cover may be invalidated.
3. This certificate covers the above number of employees and the industry noted above. Employees other than these may not be covered by this workers compensation policy.
4. Schedule 1 of the Workers' Compensation Act 1987 defines certain individuals as being "deemed" workers. Principals and employers should ensure that where "deemed" workers are engaged the full amount of the contract payments are included in the total estimated wages. The Act extends the definition of workers to persons not generally considered to be employees. These include for example, some contractors, taxi drivers, and outworkers. Even though such people may not be employees they are "deemed" to be workers for the purposes of workers compensation insurance. A business that engages contractors who are "deemed" to be workers is considered to be an employer even if the business has no direct employees.

Yours Faithfully,

Bryce Innes
